Medical Assistants are in demand because they're vital to every healthcare organization!

Think of it this way...nearly every hospital, doctor's office and healthcare facility needs people to keep the medical office humming. Medical Assistants maintain vital health records and help prepare patients for their visit with the doctor or nurse. They communicate with insurance companies, check patients' vital signs, assist with examinations and medical procedures, and make sure each patient feels comfortable and well cared for.

They work with doctors, nurses and physician assistants in small and large medical organizations including government, educational, nursing care and outpatient facilities. As they become more experienced, they may be assigned more duties such as administering basic medical tests and medications, explaining care instructions or drawing blood – there is never a dull moment for a Medical Assistant!

Compare these advantages with any other profession you can train for in such a short time...

What other career can you begin with as little as 16 weeks of training at home? How else can you earn up to $38,000 a year as your skills and experience increase? Plus consider these unique benefits...

- You can work as much as you want because Medical Assistants can work full-time or part-time.
- Work in a hospital, doctor's office, outpatient facility, medical laboratory or nursing care facility...every healthcare organization needs Medical Assistants for office and patient care functions!
